WHEN IT COMES TO FLEET SAFETY, THERE'S REALLY 2 MAJOR PARTS: THE VEHICLE AND THE DRIVER

The presentation will cover in detail the evolving landscape of the automotive industry, its technology and the positive effects it's having on fleets and the safety of your employees. The evening will conclude with a brief overview of why your auto insurance rates are increasing and what you can do to keep them under control. Bring your techs and managers to hear this important message. Speakers: Ed Lawton, Enterprise Fleet Management and Alfredo Andrial, Brown & Brown Insurance
